He steals hearts and he steals my kisses
He stole away my love
He steals my thoughts
And now it seems
He stole into my dreams

Cos he's a thief , oh
He's a thief
He's a thief

He's got me ensnared in his clutches
His love does not seem real
He's got me there , in solitaire
His love is made of steel

But he's a thief , oh yeah
He's a thief , oh

He's a thief
I locked my heart and threw away the key
But he's knocked once and 'open sesame '

He steals hearts and he steals my kisses
He stole away my love
He steals my thoughts
And now it seems
He stole into my dreams

But he's a thief
Oh, he's a thief
He's a thief ( fadeout)
