It's too late to turn back now
There ain't no space back there
And how did I begin to lose my self control?
How did I begin to lose my self control?

There ain't a thing that you could give me
With the love forever with me
That's the only thing that satisfies my soul
That's the only thing that satisfies my soul

I don't wanna be the one, remember it was only fun
Two strangers touching in the sun, it had to end
I don't wanna be the guy to tell you things that make
you cry
You know as well as I know you're my only friend

There ain't a thing that you could give me
With the love forever with me
That's the only thing that satisfies my soul
That's the only thing that satisfies my soul

I don't wanna be the one, remember it was only fun
Two strangers touching in the sun, it had to end
I don't wanna be the guy to tell you things that make
you cry
You know as well as I know you're my only friend

I, I don't wanna be the guy to tell you things that make
you cry
You know as well as I know you're my only friend
You know as well as I know you're my only friend
You're my only friend
My only friend
My only friend
