I wandered into your wonderland
With eyes open wide
You turn me into your yesterday

But you will remain inside of me
Like I care for you
Oh, I care for you

Run wild, out on the edge of time, child
Carry your dreams away, love
No one can hold you now
For you are an island

I may be broken
But understand my love will get by
There will be others along the way, my love

They will try to care for me
Like I care for you
Oh , I care for you

Run wild, out on the edge of time, child
Carry your dreams away, love
No one can hold you now
For you are an island

Run wild, out on the edge of time, child
Carry your dreams away, love
No one can hold you now
For you are an island

Run wild, out on the edge of time, child
Carry your dreams away, love
No one can hold you now
For you are an island
