I been searchin' , sailing never ending streams
I been working , trying to find out what life means
No one knows how much I been trying to get through Searchin' all my life for you , girl

Wishin' on a dream that never ends
Being foolish , trying to chase the world away
I keep looking 'round to see if there's a rainbow there
for me
Searchin' for you endlessly

Whenever I end up hurting someone
I always hurt myself
If only I could live my life over again
I'd like to be somebody else (Oh yes I would girl)
Searchin' for you love , everywhere
I keep looking 'round to see if there's a rainbow there
for me
I'm searchin' for you endlessly

Searchin' , sailing never ending streams
I been working so hard , trying to find out what life means
No one knows how much I been trying to get through Searchin' all my life for you
