Lord, she's so fine
Don't let her, she'll destroy you
The moment that she finds
She can't get no solid muscle

Takes all she wants
Empty future for you
And you won't get the best of
What you dream of

She's bad and it's wrong
So don't wait on me if you believe

She's up there waiting for you
Then you ain't grown at all
And if you need love
Let me see her for you
I can help you make some noise

A, my love is shatterproof
B, I think you're full of it
C, lazy love ain't no excuse
D, love is what you make of it

A, my love is shatterproof
B, a little too much is just enough
C, I couldn't get more than all of you
D, wrapped up in my chains of love

She's just my size
Eyes that watch her shimmer
They're crying out for more

It's the power
And the pull is too strong
And that love will take you under

She ain't up there waiting for you
She'll kick you when you fall
And anyone would walk away from her

But I love her

And she makes me suffer

A, my love is shatterproof
B, I think you're full of it
C, lazy love ain't no excuse
D, love is what you make of it

A, my love is shatterproof
B, simply indestructable
C, you will understand the truth
D, when your love is shatterproof

Before she was
There was water in the wine
But now I'm alright
Since I saw her there

Now we don't ever sleep at night
And if you look
You may see marks on me
But that's love, so be aware

A, my love is shatterproof
B, I think you're full of it
C, lazy love ain't no excuse
D, love is what you make of it

A, my love is shatterproof
B, a little too much is just enough
C, I couldn't get more than all of you
D, wrapped up in my chains of love

A, my love is shatterproof
B, I think you're full of it
C, lazy love ain't no excuse
D, love is what you make of it

A, my love is shatterproof
B, simply indestructable
C, you will understand the truth
