You and me, we're both the same
It's this life a lonely game
I used to be a happy man

And now I understand
Just what it's all about
I never had a doubt
On the chance of love

As a boy, I lived down here
I always saw you near
To be together was happiness

And I just can't forget
The moment we first kissed
I'd like to try again
On the chance of love

Yeah, on the chance of love
I'll do anything to get you by my side
On the sound of love
I will love you girl, you'll be mine

All the world would then be free
An apple falls from an apple tree
You and I will be together

And you will understand
When I first take your hand
I'll open up the door
To the chance of love
