She's gone, I'm a victim of love and I reach for her cry
There's no perception of time
She's out of my world and I'm alone
The city sleeps, she comes and she goes

She loves another one and I got no chance, no time
Ain't nothing stops the rain but the sunshine
I can see nobody, tell me where my angel goes
I say the devil knows

I'm lost, no sky above me, no earth below me
Show me where tomorrow is and teach me to see
Someone else may cry for me, could be
Show me where tomorrow is 'cause I don't know
Show me where tomorrow is 'cause I don't know
Show me where tomorrow is

Suspicion, the lies on your lips and your tenderness
I lie in wait for the gift of her pain
She'll never be mine and I'm all alone
And through a stranger, lives can change and hearts can overcome

But I need her face, so young
Ain't nothing stops the fire and it burns on Too late now she tells me, we cannot live this lie
She came home to say goodbye

I'm lost, no sky above me, no earth below me
Show me where tomorrow is and teach me to see
Someone else may cry for me, could be
Show me where tomorrow is, 'cause I don't know

Show me, I must go on Whatever the heart must take
I'll keep my love alive
And all you got is freedom, it ain't enough

I'm lost, no sky above me, no earth below me
Show me where tomorrow is and teach me to see
Someone else may cry for me, could be
Show me where tomorrow is, 'cause I don't know

Show me
