Someone keeps on telling me how much he loves me so writes it on the wall outside so I will always know who's been writing on the wall again who's been writing on the wall again
who's been writing on the wall again
Lori, I love you, lori, I love you Every evening I come home, it's waiting there for me Three little words, one little voice, someone I can't see
who's been writing on the wall again
who's been writing on the wall again
who's been writing on the wall again
Lori, I love you, lori, I love you
Is he tall or is he small
I wonder what his game is
I wish he'd write it on the wall
And tell me what his name is
I don't know if his hair is blonde or if his eyes are blue
But I know that when I meet him,
I'm gonna love him too
who's been writing on the wall again
who's been writing on the wall again
Lori, I love you, lori, I love you
Is he tall or is he small
I wonder what his game is
I wish he'd write it on the wall
And tell me what his name is
or if his eyes are blue
But I know that when I meet him,
I'm gonna love him too
who's been writing on the wall again
who's been writing on the wall again
Lori, I love you, lori, I love you
who's been writing on the wall again
who's been writing on the wall again (fade)
