Now I can see through all my ashes
I can smell and feel all this fire
It's just something we built through time
It's like a mystery unsolved
But all I have are these scars
It's what makes me strive
Deep inside I know the reason
I'm trying to feel alive
I bleed for better days
Something isn't right
I can feel it in your heart
Struggling to get out
The rage that once you kept inside
It's now consuming your life
Now
Well this is now
This is right now
Let the past behind
Let the future come
But all I have are these scars
It's what makes me strive
Deep inside I know the reason
I'm trying to feel alive
I bleed for better days
Well this is now
This is right now
Let the past behind
Let the future come
