I found myself sinking in your heart
Full of false hopes and beliefs
You and I never questioned his judgment
Thought you were the only one with the ability
Decrepit lords sit on their thrones
The crushing sun relentless in it's rise
Disgusted with what we are
Leads us to our hollow existence
Perpetual insanity
A thousand nightmares to relive
Woke up today to a world
Suppressing my feelings
Constantly fighting haunted ships
Striking my graceful approach
Darkness rises in every wrong action
Evil is in every direction
Brightness comes with love and compassion
Goodness is our way to redemption
Every step leads us closer to the edge
Every moment passing by is another failure
I lived my life with no regrets
Every step leads us closer to the edge
Every moment passing by is another failure
I lived my life with no regrets
Decrepit lords sit on their thrones
The crushing sun relentless in it's rise
Disgusted with what we are
Leads us to our hollow existence
