If you come to change our minds to black
I rather kill our night instead
I've seen the signs
The promise was broken
The pages of this book have been stolen
Burning the skies
To the last breath
Bring chills on my spine
Right on the moment
I called Lucifer
"Watch me on this heavenly judgment"
Understand
My pain is real
Let it end
I can no longer feel
Understand
My pain is real
Let it end
I can no longer feel
Thunders come strike from the clouds
Punishing me for my fate and my fortune
There is no map for this place I seek
To bring this hope back from the sink
I search in vain all over this town
A God's forsaken place is what I found
Every step coming our way
A heart beating sound makes us pray
Striking from the clouds
The wrath of God
Brings it's punishments
Upon this man
Shaking this throne
The wrath of God
Brings it's punishments
Upon this king
A last step I walk
Into forever
Giving no one my hand
It feels like my blood has turned into ashes
As I walk these streets
I see the lightnings
Coming to punish me

For the sins of ages
For the sins of ages
For the sins of ages
The final journey takes place
Eternal battles
Between hell and heaven
I struggle forever
In search for forgiveness
Come on
It's a beautiful world
Full with sickness
It's a beautiful world
Full with sickness
