Hear soft echoes
The drums in the distance
Like buried treasure
I'm measuring my persistence
True-a-view, I pursue
Now that my conscience is free
Open the claim
The Durban Poison diva tree

Now off my leash I'm free to roam
And I give up all this load for some stones
Take me back to a time
When I was less of a man
Had no plan and my mind was driftin'
Movin' along into an unsettled future
So many distractions
I'm anxious as I mature
Things were so much easier back then
Left my goals on paper- should have, but when

Now we got something for you, oh yeah
Show you the way to the door and I don't care

I hear soft echoes
The drums in the distance
Like buried treasure
I'm measuring my persistence
True-a-view, I pursue
Now that my conscience is free
Open the claim
The Durban Poison diva tree
And to my new dimensions of ability
Hard like the building blocks of stability

Now off my leash I'm free to roam
And I give up all this load for some stones
Take me back to a time
When I was less of a man
Had no plan and my mind was driftin'

Movin' along into an unsettled future
So many distractions

I'm anxious as I mature

Now we got something for you, oh yeah
Show you the way to the door and I don't care
Now we got something for you, oh yeah
Show you the way to the door and I don't care

And to my new dimensions of ability
Hard like the building blocks of stability
Now off my leash I'm free to roam
I'd give up all this load for some stones
I hear soft echoes
The drums in the distance
Like buried treasure
I'm measuring my persistence
True-a-view, I pursue
Now that my conscience is free
Open the claim
The Durban Poison diva tree

Take me back to a time
When I was less of a man
Had no plan and my mind was driftin'
Movin' along into an unsettled future
So many distractions
I'm anxious as I mature

Now we got something for you, oh yeah
Now we got something for you, oh yeah
Show you the way to the door and I don't care
Now we got something for you, oh yeah
Show you the way to the door and I don't care
