Burning alive because I'm dying with out you Show me your lies something I can hold on to

Before I say goodbye
I just want you to know
I will return to you
I know we'll make it
We will survive

Burning alive cause I'm dying with out you (can't live without you)
Show me the lies something I can hold on to (I will hold onto)

I fought the hardest battles
This war has just begun
There's nothing that can stop us
I know we'll make it
We will survive

I've seen the bladed solider
Will you come back home
And as the days get colder
Give me hope

I keep you moving forward when you're on your own
I know that you'll keep fighting
Carry on

We can make it
We will survive
On the coldest night
I pray for you
To keep pushing on
Even though my life has ended
There's still a life after death
