I took a chance on love today
We'll be the ones to beat the game
Even though we're miles apart
Together beating hearts couldn't end up that way
But I am young, the one to blame
But now I'm tired, I'm so ashamed
I was thinking to myself
How could we have made such a classic mistake

Give it up, give it up, it's over
Broken down 'cause we're miles from sea to sea
I've had enough, had enough, I told her
So it's over love is misery

I took a chance on love today
We'll be the ones to beat the game
Even though we're miles apart
Together beating hearts couldn't end up that way
I was thinking to myself
I couldn't ever fall today
But we all make mistakes

Give it up, give it up, it's over
Broken down 'cause we're miles from sea to sea
I've had enough, had enough, I told her
So it's over love is misery

Give it up, give it up, it's over
Broken down 'cause we're miles from sea to sea

I've had enough, had enough, I told her
So it's over love is misery

Love is misery
Love is misery
Love is misery
Love is misery

Take me by the hand
I'll take you by the heart
Now we're at the end
Show me where to start

Give it up, give it up, it's over
Broken down 'cause we're miles from sea to sea
I've had enough, had enough, I told her
So it's over love is misery

Give it up, give it up, it's over
Broken down 'cause we're miles from sea to sea
I've had enough, had enough, I told her
So it's over love is misery

Take me by the hand
I'll take you by the heart
Now we're at the end
Show me where to start

Give it up, give it up, it's over
Broken down 'cause we're miles from sea to sea
I've had enough, had enough, I told her
So it's over love is misery
