I won't forget the day that you went away
But somehow I know you're always here
Close to my heart
I can't believe your gone

It's not over
No we're not done
Let's show the world
Just what we've become

I won't forget what you told me
I know you're out there somewhere

Waiting for me any day
This time we won't cut corners
Well do our best to make it
Because we know it's the only way home

So please pray for me
Don't let me go to waste
Always close to my heart
I still can't believe your gone
