

Before Their Eyes "Sing To Me"

I don't really know just where to start (where to start)
It's harder when we're standing miles apart (miles apart)
If I could dream I'd paint a scene
But there is too much noise
When I can't sleep I need to hear your voice

Would you sing to me
Would you sing to me
'Cause I can feel a part of me starting to break
And when you are away from me it's harder to breathe

I don't really know just where you are (where you are)
It's harder when I'm here and I'm all alone (all alone)
If I could sleep, it's you and me
This distance keeps me up
Come set me free I need to feel your touch

Would you sing to me
Would you sing to me
'Cause I can feel a part of me starting to break

And when you are away from me it's harder to breathe

Would you sing to me
Would you sing to me
'Cause I can feel a part of me starting to break
And when you are away from me it's harder to breathe

Whoa, oh, oh, oh
Whoa, oh, oh, oh
Whoa, oh, oh, oh
Whoa, oh, oh, oh

Don't wake me up (when I can't sleep)
I really can't get enough (I need to hear your voice)

Would you sing to me
Would you sing to me
'Cause I can feel a part of me starting to break
And when you are away from me it's harder to breathe

Don't wake me up
I really can't get enough

Don't wake me up
I really can't get enough

Sing to me
