I've got this mic and a way with words
Well you've got those moves and yeah you're so sure
It's always nice to be the center of attention
It must be hard when I'm here and did I mention

We are here to stay
So you better just
Watch what you say

Whoa you don't know just how it feels
To be the one everybody's got their eyes on
They're so in love
Whoa you don't know just how it feels
To be the one everybody's got their eyes on
They're so in love

And when the lights start dimmin'
You'll be askin' me to make this room to stop spinnin' for ya
Now let me offer my apology
I'm only sorry that you can't stop callin' me

Cuz you make it such a chore
And I don't even know
What you're waiting for

I'm only good at what I do because I always keep you wantin' more
Whoa you don't know just how it feels
To be the one everybody's got their eyes on
They're so in love
Whoa you don't know just how it feels
To be the one everybody's got their eyes on
They're so in love

Are you the one everybody's got their eyes on? (2x)
(We are here to stay)
I've got this mic and a way with words
Well you've got those moves and yeah you're so sure
(We are here to stay)
It's always nice to be the center of attention

Ain't it nice to be the center of attention?

Now you know just how it feels to be the center of attention

(Center of attention)

Now you know just how it feels to be the center of attention

Whoa they don't know just how it feels

To be the one everybody's got their eyes on

I'm so in love

Whoa they don't know just how it feels

To be the one everybody's got their eyes on

I'm so in love
