I was blind, didn't know you hurt so bad
I saw inside, when everybody said I'm mad and Ran away, never to be seen again
I found a friend, when all you need is just a friend and all you need is a friend

I don't want you to go
One million miles away
Let you know that it's okay (let you know that it's okay)
I will bring you back home
Shelter you from the wind
Light a path with a burning flame (light a path with a burning flame)
We can start with today

I was lost, time was moving by so fast Felt alone cause I was living in the past and I ran to you, hoping we could make amends
Cast away, when all I needed was a friend

I don't want you to go
One million miles away
Let you know that it's okay (let you know that it's okay)

I will bring you back home
Shelter you from the wind
Light a path with a burning flame (light a path with a
burning flame)
We can start with today

Would you take me by the hand?
I'm gonna take you by the hand (hand)
Would you take me by the hand?
Yeah

I don't want you to go
One million miles ago
Let you know that it's okay

I don't want you to go
One million miles away
Let you know that it's okay (let you know that it's okay)

I will bring you back home
Shelter you from the wind
Light a path with a burning flame (light a path with a burning flame)
We can start with today

We can start with today
We can start with today
We can start with today
