This life is no longer yours!

Entertain broken souls
Don't set yourself more goals
Just let the current take you
This life is no longer yours

This is a dead end
With no more paths to take
A false resolution
Is just an attempt to escape

You've left you ignorance
Infest those around you
Everything has now decayed
There's nothing you can do!

This life is no longer yours!

Entertain broken souls
Don't set yourself more goals
Just let the current take you
This life is no longer yours

To entertain is to distract
The mind from a hopeless cause
This lie of a life you lead
Has nowhere left to fall!

The lies you told have now grown old
Distorting the facts won't take you far
The time has come to confess it all
Because we all know who you really are!

This life is no longer yours!

Entertain broken souls
Don't set yourself more goals
Just let the current take you
This life is no longer yours
