This has gone on for way too long
Chewed up my life and spat it back
The devil within me is way too strong
I won't let the rage consume my soul!

Now that I've been left alone!
There's nothing left to make me bitter
Though the source is still unknown
My anger keeps growing stronger!

The beast is out now
Unleashed upon this world
Don't get in my way
Just heed my word!

It's too late now, my life is ruined
I have become, the very thing I hate
My body is raging but my soul is dead
It seems like now this is my fate!

The beast is out now
Unleashed upon this world
Don't get in my way
Just heed my word!
