Voices dwell in chambers of ages surpassed
Resentments echo within vaults suffused in the past
Thirst for insurrection remained unquenched Alleviate this demented presence of it's timeless
sufferage
Perdition tightens it's grip suffocating every scope Anguish perforates it's roots consuming each drop of hope Undulating perceptions wallow within this ill-bred mind Light cleansed away from eyes conferring black to the blind Unassuaged existence burdened with forced derangement Insurmountable horror disturbs this earthly confinement
Twisted meditations fruit of prolonged abstinence
Senses tortured through ages of utter penance
Twisted meditations fruit of prolonged abstinence
Senses tortured through ages of utter penance
Vain reasons unsaturate this dehumanizing intent Significance of pleasure inversed in dismal repent Void instigated through inebriated preachings Perpetuated maelstorm forges this hollow sense of being Absurdity flows incessantly from demented mouths Regressed lore furiously spat in intimidating shouts Pain burnt deep within this morosed sanity Hindered into oblivion from a manipulated destiny
Voices dwell in chambers of ages surpassed
Resentments echo within vaults suffused in the past
Thirst for insurrection remained unquenched
Alleviate this demented presence of it's timeless
sufferage
