Blinding, shattering brightness breaks the darkness of dawn
Blistering gusts of fire, a nightmare in life forever torn Fear
Silence
Misery
Devastation
Left in the shambles, the smoke, innocent victims of war
Hiding behind their nakedness, in fear of what's left for their unborn
Fear
Silence
Misery
Devastation
Bloodied, blinded, shaking, left in horror of your bomb
Burnt, broken, sweating, scarred for life in your war
Fear
Silence
Misery
Devastation
