Loaded weapon, take a close look
Open eyes and you will see this tragedy
Murder weapon, take a close look
Open eyes and you will see the full story

There's no point arguing this time
I've made up my mind and it's a crime
I hold the gun in my hand
With it your life's at stake
Wait till you beg forgiveness
This time I'll leave you for dead

Loaded weapon, take a close look
Open eyes and you will see this tragedy
Murder weapon, take a close look
Open eyes and you will see the full story

No room for excuses tonight
I've heard all your lies
Seen through closed eyes
I hold your life in my hands
And watch the sun rise up
To bleed you from this cradle
Of evil taking over

Loaded weapon, take a close look
Open eyes and you will see this tragedy
Murder weapon, take a close look
Open eyes and you will see the full story

Loaded weapon
Take a close look,
Murder weapon
Take a close look, take a close look
Murder weapon, where's your faith now?
