"The Underworld"

This is the underworld
Our vengeance will be swift and strong
This is a genocide
Of everyone that has wronged.
The blood of the guilty will flood the streets
Justice will be brought to those that are weak
They will taste the earth
As we give back what they're worth.
They will taste our rage
As we close their cage.
This is the underworld
Exposing truth for all to see
This is the suffering
For now and ever.
We'll fill every crack
We'll turn every stone
Till this world is clean
We'll kill them all.
There's no escape, you can run
But you can't hide.
Justice will be brought to
All of you when we find.
They will taste the earth
As we give back what they're worth.
They will taste our rage
As we close their cage.
This is a vendetta.
This is the last time
The one time.
You can repent.
