

Behind The Scenery "Towards The Edge Of Degeneration"

Someday humanity will be
Unable to form an own view

The price for progress that we shall pay together
Pay with our intelligence and our knowledge
Don't say it's only utopia
The seed is sown
Here
Today

Push the button and believe
Receive your daily injection from the screen
But will you see the retrograde evolution
Of human race which hides behind the lies

With wide open and empty eyes we gaze
Into the screen
Hypnotized by the colourful
Waves of misinformation
We swallow up the lies and pre-conceptions

Simple human race
What are you today

Simple human race
What will be tomorrow

Technology will control
The confused masses
Progress will be the new regime
Unable to avert the fast stagnation
We trust in implanted views and drift

Towards the edge of degeneration
Towards the eve of the end

See how the machines
Get stronger every day
Progress enslaves humanity

Tomorrow we will live
In a sad and grey world

Reigned by solitude
Personal communication
Will be unnecessary for mankind

Simple human race
What are your today

Simple human race
What will be tomorrow

Technology will control
The confused masses
Progress will be the new regime
