Science, beyond the limits of science, beyond the laws of men

Secret research for the one, now here we are!

Day by day working hard, testing stages

Creating copies of perfect no-men, we've got now all
we need to go

Our mind is full of bloody hate, our plan is

A killer game that will not fail

We'll rule everywhere!

Killers, we have a thousand killers slave to the system
we created

Ready to do what we say, now, what we want!

Day by day working hard, testing stages

Creating copies of perfect no-men, we've got now all
we need to go

No one's expecting their arrive, no one will

No one will ever stop our plan

We'll kill everywhere!

Beware our no-men, they will lead you straight to hell
no time to run away

They were born to serve and kill, realise our goal to lead the world!

Killers, we have a thousand killers slave to the system
we created

Ready to do what we say, now, what we want!

Day by day working hard, testing stages

Creating copies of perfect no-men, we've got now all
we need to go

Day by day working hard, testing stages

Creating copies of perfect no-men, we've got now all
we need to go

Our mind is full of bloody hate, our plan is

A killer game that will not fail

We'll rule everywhere!

The moon is shining high
The march is going to start

Beware our no-men, they will lead you straight to hell
no time to run away
They were born to serve and kill, realise our goal to lead the world!
