Force of the Eilen warriors come to destroy the faithless knights Holy shadow's in the sky Run to the walls of Lorengaard, where our mighty heroes lie Proudly we will save our land We know the secrets of the ancient times, we'll ride the winds of glory tonight Cross the seas of time, we will see our fate, enemies will know the power of our race

CHORUS:

The master of heaven will rise, the altar of glory will honour our pride God will open the sky and we'll march together till the end of time

SOLO - Matt Treasure

Lord, I'm going to die, I'm waiting for your call

I'll follow your signs Guide my deeds and so my land will be free again
Now let's take our swords!

Fight while the night is falling down, while the oceans meet the sky
Between death and glory ride Show the evil brightness of your lance, show the blade of your sword
'cause your kingdom will not fall

The master of heaven gave you the crown, you'll have the throne of Lorengaard Your noble heart will be legend tonight and you will burn out your holy flame!
