I watched you walk into the room.
I want to say this just right.
If you ain't waitin' for somebody special,
Would you be with me tonight?
I'm a doctor, I'm a lawyer, I'm a movie star.
I'm an astronaut, and I own this bar.

And I'd lie to you for your love.
I'd lie to you for your love.
I'd lie to you for your love,
That's the truth.

I can tell you what you wanna hear.
Awesome secrets 'bout myself.
I can tell you you're the only one, baby.
There'll never be nobody else.
Yeah, I'm runnin' for president.
I got money to burn.
My heart don't ache and my body don't yearn.

And I'd lie to you for your love.
I'd lie to you for your love.
I'd lie to you for youe love.
That's the truth.

Maybe it would be easier just to come out and say it.
I ain't never seen a woman quite like you.

My family comes from royalty on my daddy's side.
And I can read your palms and cards and tell you,
Our love just can't be denied.
I'm a doctor, I'm a lawyer, I'm a movie star.
I'm an astronaut, and I own this bar.

And I'd lie to you for your love.
I'd lie to you for your love.
I'd lie to you for your love.
That's the truth.
That's the truth.
