If you got all the answers
You know just what to say
You suck them into your web like a spider hunting prey
Being happy with their playmate, they don't wander off their faith
But them happy little suckers were just the spider's bait
Yes, you've got the answers
You know just what it takes
Yes this spider is out to get you
??? Break you 'till the mock and bray???

I hope this spider gets you and take you to her layer
But what's the use in telling you
Why should I really care?
There's been many more before you
Tiny, open up your eyes
Her charming ways are many fold
Why should they all be lies?
Yes, you've got the answers
You know just what it takes
Yes this spider is out to get you

??? Break you 'till the mock and bray???

This Tiny's on your side
And if she goes away then it wasn't really worth it
She's a hunter hunting prey
And the spider's never happy
The spider's always there
If the spider gets what she wants then why should she even care
Yes, you've got the answers
You know just what it takes
Yes this spider is out to get you
??? Break you 'till the mock and bray???
Yes, you've got the answers
You know just what it takes
Yes this spider is out to get you
??? Break you 'till the mock and bray???
Yes, you've got the answers
You know just what it takes
Yes this spider is out to get you

??? Break you 'till the mock and bray???
