Good morning, mister sunshine
Good morning, lady dawn
I hardly get to know you
And now the night is gone

Time to rise and blink our eyes
And turn the whole world on
Good morning, mister sunshine
Good morning, lady dawn

Good morning, mister bluebird
Good morning, lady dove
I hope you stay together now
And paint the sky above

You and I were meant to fly
And tell the world about love
Good morning, mister bluebird
Good morning, lady dove

Do not let the morning
Come between us, love
Stay with me and
Share the afternoon

As the shadows
Lengthen into evening
Stay with me and
We can share the moon
Share the moon

Good evening, mister moonbeam
Good evening, lady night
Why don't we stay together now
Await the morning light

When we shine, I feel so fine
And I think you're outta sight
Good evening, mister moonbeam
And I love you, lady night

Good evening, mister moonbeam

And I love you, lady night
