This thing is so hard to load
And I can't aim
(I can't aim)
I can't swim
But I can turn this into gold

On the wings of the angel who left you here
Sadie, Sadie you got a bonfire in your hair
Must be heaven in there
Sadie, Sadie you got beach bonfire hair

And it turns crazy red
When I touch you there
When I touch you there
Let the Gods turn away
Let the Gods turn away

This wave is so hard to hold
And I can't swim
(I can't swim)
I can't swim
But I can turn this into gold

Hit the water in slow-mo like angels in air
Sadie, Sadie you got a bonfire in your hair
Must be heaven in there
Sadie, Sadie you got beach bonfire hair

And it turns crazy red
When I touch you there
When I touch you there
Let the Gods turn away
Let the Gods turn away
