I can see the heat pour off of me
I can see it burns you too, brother

I can see the strength you took from me
I can see it zapped you too, brother

But we're not angels
We're not fools
Danger, danger

I can see your allegiance to me
I can see that I'm no fun anymore

I can see the way you put your arm out to me
And I'm no fun anymore

But we're not an angels
We're not fool
Danger, danger

She said, "I'm not a unicorn
You'll always find another one"

"And you're not a dying sun
There's always another ray to your heart"

I'm holding out
I'm holding out for a spaceman, for a spaceman
For a spaceman, for the spaceman

She said, "I'm not a unicorn
Go out and get another one"

"You're not a dying sun
There's always another ray to your heart"

I'm holding out
I'm holding out for a spaceman, for a spaceman
For a spaceman, for the spaceman

I can see the heat pour off of me
I can see it burns you too
