

Beloved "Allure"

Hold close now
Its your only assurance
Of controlling the outcome of this ending
Is it ending or just leaving us
Tired and waiting?
Youre chasing the reasons
Revolving in circles of questions
Weve all tried to answer for ourselves
The answers already inside us
Just Listen
And maybe you'll find an answer
You don't want to hear
Its only your diversions that keep it away
Just open up your eyes to see
Finally you'll understand to fill this void
Empty out entirely what's standing now
