I made you promises
I want them back
I gave you everything
You stabbed me in the back

I finally figured out
That I can't live without
The pain I feel inside
It opened up my eyes
I began to realize
I trusted way too many lies

Its time to pick up the pieces now
Am i fallin down? am i drownin out?
Am I the only one that sees things this way?
Well I guess it goes to show
Put me on my swing
Cause I can see the whole world from here
And I feel so alive

Put me on my swing
Cause I can see the whole world from here
And I feel so alive
Put me on my swing
Cause I can see the whole world from here
And I feel so alive
Put me on my swing
Cause I can see the whole world from here
And I feel so alive
