I was there
In the corner of my eye
I swear, i was there
Sky high, bone dry
In a restless world
With a burning pain
I was there
But never again

I knew you would
The way you should
You said you could
But i don't walk straight
I'm on my face again

I saw you
From the look on your face
You saw me too
I saw you
World-weary, split in two
Standing cold
In the driving rain
I saw you
But never again

I knew you would
The way you should
You said you could
But i don't think straight
I'm on my face again

On my own
With my experience i should have known
On my own
Destination unknown
I've forgot the reasons why i can't explain
On my own
But never again
Never again

I knew you would
The way you should

You said you could
But i don't walk straight
I'm on my face again
