As beautiful as the setting sun
When our eyes, when our eyes first met
A spark deep down inside
These feelings that I cannot hide
And when I get there, dont wake me
Just let me dream
To be the one you run to (thats my dream)
The one you talk to (thats my dream)
To be the one you hold to (thats my dream)
The one you love, thats my dream
Thank you, God, for this blessing
My actions have worked enough confessing
How I barely feel in my heart
So got, wrecked the dream and stars
And when I get there, dont wake me
Just let me dream
To be the one you run to (thats my dream)
The one you talk to (thats my dream)
To be the one you hold to (thats my dream)
The one you love, thats my dream
To be the one you run to (thats my dream)
The one you talk to (thats my dream)
To be the one you hold to (thats my dream)
The one you love, thats my dream
To be the one you run to (thats my dream)
The one you crawl to (thats my dream)
To be the one you cling to (thats my dream)
The one you love, thats my dream
To be the one you run to (thats my dream)
The one you crawl to (thats my dream)
To be the one you cling to (thats my dream)
The one you love, thats my dream
Dont wake me, cause Im dreaming
Dont wake me, cause Im dreaming
Dont wake me, cause Im dreaming
Dont wake me, cause Im dreaming
Im dreaming
Im dreaming
