

Beloved "Rise And Fall"

Visit "Rise And Fall" on MotoLyrics.com

Our defenses open
Our motives are shot
This hush of the heart seems too much to keep
Its gathered here and wakening me
Its stealing with fear that's reaching in
And pulling out with every beat
Resounding loud and clear, but only to me
In this confiding pulse
Ill find a way to keep it all confined
Its reminding me and always surrounding me

Past pictures will keep me
From being the man I could be
Burn out and I'll burn now
Ill carry this burden of memory
A name that lingers on a blank face
Can never fill a heart that's sinking fast
And hurting to feel
Its falling so fast now
To never rise again
We all burn out
We all rise and fall
We all burn now
