

Beloved [us] "Allure"

Hold close now
It's your only assurance
Of controlling the outcome of this ending
Is it ending or just leaving us
Tired and waiting?
You're chasing the reasons
Revolving in circles of questions
We've all tried to answer for ourselves
The answer's already inside us
Just Listen
And maybe you'll find an answer
You don't want to hear
It's only your diversions that keep it away
Just open up your eyes to see
Finally you'll understand to fill this void
Empty out entirely what's standing now
