Every time I see you
Undoes the progress
Loose ends come undone

Said it was over
So if it's over
How come we're not with someone
Why can't we say we're moving on

It's like the dust won't settle
So what happens now
Cause we can't see clearly
When it's coming down
It still hangs in the air
Like the words we don't say
And every time that we meet it's gone and kicked up
again
No the dust, no the dust, no the dust won't settle
No the dust, no the dust, no the dust won't settle

Where does this leave us
Cause I don't need this Raking the embers again

To soon to loose you
To late to hold you
To hard to act like we're friends
And pretend that we're both moving on

It's like the dust won't settle
So what happens now
Cause we can't see clearly
When it's coming down
It still hangs in the air
Like the words we don't say
And every time that we meet it's gone and kicked up
again
No the dust, no the dust, no the dust won't settle
No the dust, no the dust, no the dust won't settle

Can't clear the air, your all around me

All that we did and said surrounds me
So much we shared the thought of friends chokes me up, Oh Lord

It's like the dust won't settle
So what happens now
Cause we can't see clearly
When it's coming down
It still hangs in the air
Like the words we don't say
again
No the dust, no the dust, no the dust won't settle
