"Fly One Time"

[Incomprehensible] ability, it's pounding at my door
Screaming for more
In a world that owes you nothing
You give everything, everything

And now I'm caught in between
What I can't leave behind
And what I may never find
So fly one time, fly one time

Standing at the edge of your life
At the edge of my lies
Don't hold on, there's no fighting back the years
So hard to unlearn fears

Now you're caught in between
What you can't leave behind
And all that you may never find
So fly, just fly, just fly one time

I see you so clearly, so clearly
I'm so high
I see you up so clearly, up so clearly
Up so high, so high

Now you're caught in between
What you can't leave behind
And what you may
What we may never find

So fly, so fly, one time
So clearly, so clearly, so high
Fly one time, just fly one time
If you fly one, one time
