"He Will Fall"

Visit "He Will Fall" on MotoLyrics.com

We've been running round this world too much, girl
Trying not to see
But no freer then, we can see again
Now the old corruption packed it's ransom sack
Buttoned his dirty Mac
He won't be coming back with us,
He won't be welcomed back

Oh you, you never show your face no more
Slam the door
Changes...

But if, oh... if you should fall
I vow today to pay tomorrow
The debts you owe to sorrow

We've been running round this world too much, girl
Trying not to see
