She opened her heart to a tearaway, Sheepskin
Tearaway
He was full of scars and full of ... (?)
Though she thought from the start, that not one single thing would ever be ok
Though she was proved wrong anyway
She opened her heart to a tearaway At nite in sleep they held on to eachother tight in the dark
And she heard him say "All my life I've been fighting
And making the best of a very bad lot in here"

She opened her heart to a tearaway, Sheepskin
