You....

You said you'd come around
Silk stockings can't be found
On my floor no more

You....

You're the one I want to see
You could make me happy
If you'd come and live with me
I don't even know that much about losing
I've had some bad times
I've had some good times
I've done ok

You could take it all from me if you wanted
And I'm sure that you'd agree
Well, I hope that you'd agree

You....

You opened up my mind
I'm standing in the rain
Feeling alright

You....

You put a grin across my face
I love the way you taste
I really want you babe
I don't even know that much about you
You've got that magic touch
You've really got it down
I don't even see your face when I want you
But I hear you come around
Well, I know you come around
Oh, babe I want you
Yeah, yeah yeah ohhhh...

How I want you

I don't even know that much about losing
But you've got that magic touch
You really got it down
I don't even see your face when I want you
But I hope you come around
Well, I know you come around

You....

You said you'd come around
On my floor no more

You....
You're the one I want to see
You could make me happy
If you'd only come and live with me
Baby
You can fall in love
Fall in love again
(repeat six times to fade out)
