I wanna be, wanna be beside you
Baby baby
I'll be loving you soon
Feels like a train, running off the track
Going all directions, but i cant come back
Do i miss you, baby yes i do
Never felt the pain like I'm missing you
I'm at a point, i'm just a man not a slave
Breaking down the walls, getting off this plane
I want to live my life simple & so true
I'm just a man who stands up, beside you
Do you miss me, you know that i do
Thinking of me, yeahh it's getting me through
I'm waiting for you here
I wanna be the man who stands up, beside you
So much restriction, flowing out of me
Dont want you to worry, about what it means
I cant do this & i can't do that
All i know is i'm gonna love you when im back
Do you miss me, you know that i do
Thinking of me, yeahh it's getting me through
I'm waiting for you here
I want to be the man who stands up, beside you
And i'm waiting here for the smoke to clear around us, yeah
When the storm goes down there will be sunshine there on your face
Just you wait
I'm at a point, i'm just a man not a slave
Breaking down these walls getting off this plane
I want to live my life simple & so true
I'm just a man who stands, beside you
Do you miss me, you know that i do
Thinking of me, yeahh it's getting me through
I'm waiting for you here
I want to be the man who stands beside you
Baby, Baby
I'll be kissing you
I'll be loving you soon
