It's gonna be alright
We've been in this game so long
And we couldn't get this far
If we were only holding on
When the troubles of life
Try to break us somehow
I'll never let them hurt you
When they try to break us down
They're going for the heart
But there's no pain that we can't feel
Shoot us in the dark
But there's no scar that can't be healed
We'll give it every day
A little more
Long as we believe
Cos when it finally comes to call
I know that we will be
Last to fall
You know I gotta go
But you know that I'm coming back
Like my missing heart ...
