I walk alone
These streets just a little bit crowded
No faces I know
No voices a little familiar
At least I've got you on mind
Yes that little ray of light in these tired eyes

Were do I walk, feel a bit lost
It's getting so hard for me trust
Where do I turn it's a road so long
Everything I used to know has gone
But in a world of lies and alibis it's hard tell a hero from a fool
But with you I get nothing but the truth

Oh yeah
No stones unturned
You know me nobody knows me better

Just make us a little bit stronger
You see for a long, long, long, long time
You're my little ray of hope
In this day so cold

Were do I walk, feel a bit lost
It's getting so hard for me trust
Where do I turn it's a road so long
Everything I used to know has gone
And in a world of lies and alibis it's hard to tell a hero from a fool
But with you I get nothing but the truth

You're the only one that keeps me on my feet
Always let the sun shine down on me, yeah
So you're a little ray of light in these tired eyes

Were do I walk, feel a bit lost
It's getting so hard for me trust
Where do I turn it's a road so long
Everything I used to know has gone
In a world of lies and alibis it's hard to tell a hero from

a fool
But with you oooh, oh with you I get nothing but the truth

It's getting so hard

In a world of lies and alibis it's hard to tell a hero from
a fool
But with you I get nothing but the truth
