Will you disarm me oh I know
Won't you let me drop my guard?
And as hard as I may try
You're in my heart

Whisper something warm and soft and sweet
Which just so feels these words cannot complete

But you feel spaces, hollow places, things you cannot mend
So you let go, oh
And you let go, oh

Would you disarm me oh I know
Won't you let me drop my guard?
And as hard as I have tried
You're in my heart

I whisper something warm and soft and sweet

What this soul feels these words cannot complete

But you made spaces, hollow places, things I could not
mend
So I let go, oh
And I let go, oh

So I let go of this
Well anything that hold me back, oh
So I let go, let go of this

So oh, oh, oh, oh
Let go oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Let go oh, oh
Let go of it
