The things that I lost
Have come back here the same
I thought that I'd passed them
But they found me again

So I woke up today
And I'm still sitting here
It's just like the last one
And the others before then

Yeah, I promised I'd change
About this time last year
But we both know how that went
I guess you're not so important

I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change
I'm ready for

I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change

And so what does it take
To start over again
Step out of comfort my friends
Yes, and change for the better

And so why do I wait
And sit here till the end
Wait till it's over and then
Wish that I had done better

I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change
I'm ready for...

I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change

[Interlude]

Oh I'm ready for change
I'm ready for
oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change
I'm ready for...

I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change
I'm ready for...

I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change
im ready for...

I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change
I'm ready for change
I'm ready for...
