Talk
scream to my dreaming but trembling mind Break
slumbering thoughts that I suddenly find Waken
invisible memories breaking the seal Caught
inbetween feelings that noone can heal
Â—
Drive in me
dive in me
deep in my brain all these malevolent forces arise in me
Â—IÂ'm thinking back to find the truth
the cause is burried in my mind

IÂ'm digging for it in my youth IÂ'm hoping that IÂ'll never find Â—
Pain
faning the flames of the selfhate in me
Help
searching for details that I cannot see Yearning
knowing and languishing greed for release Kept
constantly held by this glowing disease
Â—IÂ'm thinking back to find the truth
