Have you heard, it's absurd
The pee-pee from a little bird
Wake up to fun, sinduction have occured
C'mon, let's turn this place into a House of Joy
C'mon, let's turn the world into a spinning toy
Is there anyone on their way to Betlehem to be born?
Is there anyone strong enough, whole enough no to be torn?
Well I don't know, but I'm still happy
A woman gave me the remedy
Let your whole body shake with laughter
Have you heard, it's absurd
The pee-pee from a little bird
Wake up to fun, sinduction have occured
C'mon, let's turn this place into a House of Joy

C'mon, let's turn the world into a spinning toy
>From every corner of the world
We collect the strangest things
Put them here where they belong
It's a House of Joy
Herbs that gave my senses birth
A rose that blossomed in the dirt
Songs from when I was a boy
In my House of Joy
>From Brazil, clorophyll
>From Rangoon, a dirty moon
>From hanoi, a broken toy
Have you heard, it's absurd
The pee-pee from a little bird
Wake up to fun, sinduction have occured
C'mon, let's turn this place into a House of Joy
C'mon, let's turn the world into a spinning toy
